

Tersus Consultancy CASE STUDY

East Kent Hospitals University NHS Foundation Trust

Contract Start:

Contract End:

Contract Value: up to £22k

Brief Description:

Tersus have been retained by the Trust to carry out a range of survey and projects tasks including the SECT Scanner Nuclear Medicine Project, at Canterbury Hospital.

More generally for the Trust:
Provision of localised refurbishment surveys,
Re-inspections,
Air monitoring and 4-stage clearance.

This contract covers the provision of:

- Surveying
- Sampling
- Re-inspection
- Bulk Analysis
- Air monitoring / 4-stage clearance

The hospital is located on the outskirts of the City of Canterbury. The original part of the main hospital building was constructed in 1937, with later developments undertaken on site in the 1960s.

Tersus have been retained by the Trust to carry out a range of survey and projects tasks including the SECT Scanner Nuclear Medicine Project, at Canterbury Hospital, to support the management and development of the hospital.

Benefits to Client:

Working for East Kent NHS Trust,
Tersus have been responsible for ensuring high standards of asbestos service provision.

Tersus work in line with strict Health & Safety requirements and induction training includes the specific needs of working in a complex occupied health service environment

Services provided by Tersus are accredited under ISO17020 and ISO17025 documented procedures.

