

Tersus Consultancy CASE STUDY

University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust

Contract Start: 2016

Contract End: Current

Contract Value: up to £70k per annum

Brief Description:

Asbestos management annual re-inspections. Ad-hoc refurb surveys, asbestos remediation and removal project management and air monitoring. Maintaining the asbestos register section of the client MICAD, asset management data base for compliance.

This contract covers the provision of:

- Surveying
- Sampling
- Re-inspection
- Bulk Analysis
- Air monitoring / 4-stage clearance

Benefits to Client:

University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation one of the largest organisations running NHS hospitals in England. The hospitals and services run by HEFT include Heartlands Hospital, Solihull Hospital, Good Hope Hospital in Sutton Coldfield and Birmingham Chest Clinic.

Working for University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust, Tersus have been responsible for ensuring high standards of asbestos service provision across three major hospital sites.

Tersus work in line with strict Health & Safety requirements and induction training includes the specific needs of working in health care environments.

Services provided by Tersus are accredited under ISO17020 and ISO17025 documented procedures.

